

AutismPro™ Testimonials

"The organization of multiple sources of complex information is one of the biggest challenges for educators. AutismPro Workshops is taking on the challenge."

Dr. Teresa Bolick
Psychologist, Boston

"AutismPro Resource Manager is a valuable tool for teachers. It provides them with the resources and information they need all in one place, without having to wade through a library of books or do frustrating Internet searches. This software brings it all together and simplifies the process of delivering educational programming for children with autism."

Jackie Agnew
Educational Assistant, Toronto

"It's nice to have a program where you can choose goals based on an understanding of the child's needs. The software is easy to navigate and user-friendly."

Isabelle Cowan
Psychologist, St. Stephen

"I think that AutismPro could potentially serve as a powerful tool in helping guide parents and professionals in the design and delivery of effective and meaningful individualized education/therapy for children on the autism spectrum. [The strategy plans] are clear and easy to follow. The content is very rich, covering a wide array of meaningful strategies."

Dr. Pamela J. Wolfberg
San Francisco State University

[AutismPro] puts together a tremendous amount of information that will assist families and practitioners in being able to design an effective program."

Dr. Cathy Pratt
Chair, Autism Society America

"It is very impressive and we are very pleased to see all the hard work come to such an outstanding outcome."

Margaret Whelan
Executive Director, Geneva Centre for Autism, Toronto

"It's fabulous ... the design is beautiful ..."

Dr. Brenda Smith Myles
Professor of Special Education, University of Kansas

"I can see its value in our work at the Geneva Centre for Autism."

Neil Walker
Program Director, Geneva Center for Autism, Toronto

"I like how you can combine more than one treatment approach. This is extremely important as flexibility in treatment means that we can customize interventions for each child. AutismPro will ... empower parents through education, guidance and activity ideas."

Paula Aquilla
Occupational Therapist, Toronto
